

About Buckeye Girls State Government

General Information

To get the most from the Buckeye Girls State Program, you need to participate. Select an office you feel you can serve well. If you are interested in a particular office, do some research before coming to BGS to find out all you can about the duties, function and responsibilities of that office. The Ohio Government Digest is available on the website (www.buckeyegirlsstate.org) to assist you in your research. You might want to consult an official holding the office as part of your research. Take full advantage of the Monday Workshops to learn specific information about the office you seek. Once you have researched the office, campaign enthusiastically and, if elected, represent your fellow Citizens to the best of your abilities. Remember, they have entrusted their vote to you! If you should lose, you have still “won” for you have gained from those experiences and the election process.

Also, have alternative positions in mind. There are many, many appointed positions on all levels at Girls State so don’t be discouraged if you don’t get your first choice. There should be no one unemployed! Make the very most of this time. You will benefit now and far into the future!

Because our time is limited there are some areas where we have had to make decisions for you but we attempt to adhere to Ohio laws and processes as closely as possible.

Political Parties

Although you will select your own party affiliation in your private life when you turn 18, at Buckeye Girls State you will be assigned to a political party. There are two parties – Federalists (blue lanyards) and Nationalists (gold lanyards). Once you are assigned to a party however, you will create your own party platform. You will be among the approximately 600 girls attending the program.

Cities and Counties

At registration, you will be assigned to a City. There are 15 Cities named for famous Ohio women. Each City has a City Government Advisor and a City Counselor.

Your City is part of a County. The three Counties are named for living Past State Presidents of the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary. Each County has a County Government Advisor.

The Election Process

City Elections are held within your City. Primary and General Elections are held in two or three computer labs around campus and will determine the officials on the County and State levels. Each City will elect two Central Committeemen (one for each party) whose duties include:

1. Foster and instill party loyalty.
2. Make certain her party has candidates for City Offices.
3. Promote candidates for County and State Offices, and work for their election.
4. Take an active role during County & State Caucuses, Rallies and Debates.
5. Participate in platform development.

Your City Central Committeeman, along with her counterpart in the opposing party and their City Government Advisor, serve as the Precinct Election Officials and will assist in the City Elections. She must also hold an appointive position after these duties are completed. She, along with her counterpart and Advisor, will be responsible for preparing the ballot used in the election of the City Officials.

Each party will elect a County Board of Elections official within their City to assist with the Primary and General Elections, petition filing, etc. She too, must hold an appointive position after these duties are completed.

Declaration of Candidacy and Petitions must be signed by not less than four (4) nor more than eight (8) electors of the same party in the same County. Please note that All BGS Staff Members are considered a Notary Public when it is necessary for you to have papers signed. As in real life a filing fee is required; however, at BGS you'll receive BGS checks to cover any government functioning expense.

To become a candidate for:	You:
County Office	Should be nominated through the County Caucus of your political party. Candidates must file a Petition for the Primary Election (along with the required BGS filing fee) at the designated place and time listed in the Daily Program.
